6 That story about Bowser closing all the hotels and restaurants tweeted over the weekend. I could not find it from any local D.C. news source. Tells you right there it was bogus.

2 True Dat. D.C. hotels and restaurants will likely never see crowds this large again in our lifetimes. If Bowser screwed them out of the revenue she'd become electoral toast. Likewise no local TV or radio station would not report a thing like that if they wished to remain viable in the market.

2 Let's all hope this goes way better than the Battle of the Alamo. They did lose they battle after all hence the remembering of all who were lost there.

▼ a garage but the garage closed down cause the "street is blocked". Made a reservation at another garage that was slated as open- with traffic it took us 30 minutes to get there. THAT garage was closed cause "street is blocked".
